Dainik Bhaskar - Junior Editor (Season - 7)
India's Largest Newspaper-Making Competition

Class IV - VII

Dear Parents

Namaskar!

Widely read and circulated newspaper, Dainik Bhaskar brings to you the 7th edition of Junior Editor, India's largest newspaper-making competition for classes 4th upwards. Junior Editor (JE), recognized by the GUINNESS WORLD RECORDS, is a platform to explore and enhance the journalistic skills of our young readers and promote creative thinking. Interested participants are required to pay registration fee amounting to Rs. 100 to the newspaper coordinator.

We, at Bal Bharati Public School, SSTPP Khandwa, are glad to welcome our students to experience the above stated unique activity and wholesome opportunity that blends the elements of editing, designing, reporting, and creative writing. It gives you a chance to create your own newspaper by making headlines, crafting stories, and writing editorials and unravel your innate talents.

This is an optional activity, yet, we encourage our students to participate. If interested, a payment of Rs. 100/- need to paid via UPI on Dainik Bhaskar's coordinator (Sandeep Soni) number i.e., 900940937. Post payment, a screenshot of the same to be shared with respective class teacher via whatsapp. Participants will be given a printed broadsheet from Dainik Bhaskar to fill and submit. Specific guidelines in the broadsheet will help your ward through the writing and illustration process.

An hour session to train and upskill our students for the competition will be conducted by Ms. Kirtikaa Birla, teacher incharge and English faculty who can be reached from 5:00 pm to 7:00 pm for any queries.

Your ward's participation will be greatly appreciated. Looking forward to your continued support in making the journey of education valuable, rewarding and worthwhile for our students.

Regards

Jyoti Gupta
