Dear Parents,

We are excited to announce that our school will celebrate National Library Week, a time dedicated to fostering a love for reading, creativity and literary exploration. Throughout this week, students will exchange in a series of exciting activities designed to inspire their imagination and develop their reading and writing skills.

We are honored to host an author talk, where students can listen to a published writer share insights into the writing journey and creative process. This event offers students valuable exposure to the world of authorship, helping them gain new perspectives and inspiring their own storytelling journeys.

The school is happy to organize National Library week, for students from 18th Nov- 21st Nov and will be hosting a series of literary activities.
