PLAY, PAINT, AND LEARN: GROWING THROUGH CREATIVITY

Growing Through Creativity" is essential as it fosters creativity, self-expression, and imagination while developing fine motor skills, problem-solving, and critical thinking. It also builds confidence, self-esteem, and emotional regulation, promoting holistic development in children.

A special storytelling session was conducted for our Nursery students, where they actively participated by wearing masks and immersing themselves in the narrative. The story emphasized the importance of living together in harmony, fostering values of unity and togetherness among the young learners.

This interactive approach not only made the session enjoyable but also helped develop their listening. communication, and social skills. Such activities play a vital role in shaping young minds with positive values.
